Share this information

It is important to share this information with your providers and staff because they need to know about Truli, too.

Additional resources

- Truli for Health Provider Manual: The provider manual is your resource for all things Truli, including billing information, utilization management and other programs and processes. You can find the manual on Availity®¹ at availity.com. To access the manual:
 - › Log in to Availity and select Truli for Health under Payer Spaces
 - › Choose Resources
 - › Select Truli for Health Provider Manual
- News and Announcements: This web page lets health care providers and staff members find important information in one convenient place, including the latest What's New updates and archived Bulletins and FAQs. To find this information:
 - › Go to truliforhealth.com
 - › Select Providers (top of the page)
 - › Choose What's New under News and Announcements

How we will keep you informed

You will receive important news through a regular News and Announcements email that will take you to the What's New page on the Truli provider web page at truliforhealth.com. You will find the latest information about doing business with us, including billing and claims, administrative updates, quality and compliance news, plan/product information, policy updates, pharmacy program details, self-service tools and more. Please note: News and Announcements emails will come from Truli for Health, and the subject line will say, Important News from Truli for Health.
